Pastor Chris Jung

“Then the devil led Jesus to the top of a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and all their splendor. The devil said, ‘If you will bow down and worship me, I will give you all these things.’ Jesus said to the devil, ‘Go away from me, Satan! It is written in the Scriptures, ‘You must worship the Lord your God and serve only him.’ So the devil left Jesus, and angels came and took care of him.”

Matthew 4:8-11 (NCV)

All the things the world can offer to you—the allure of pleasure, the passion to have things, and the pompous sense of superiority—do not come from the Father. These are the rotten fruits of this world. This corrupt world is already wasting away, as are its selfish desires. But the person really doing God’s will—that person will never cease to be.”

No one who believes in me will ever be thirsty.’”
